In Case of Emergency

The red Hatzolah phone is in the hallway on the wall between the rear washing station and the Simcha Room.

The defibrillator is in a cubby in the coat room opposite the Hatzolah phone.

Parashas Ki-Savo – 5768 – Horror, Consolation and Joy

The most striking feature of Parashas Ki-Savo is the “Tochachah,” the terrifying litany of curses that Moshe Rabbeinu, A”H, warns the Children of Israel will befall them if they abandon the Torah, “Accursed will you be in the city and accursed will you be in the field... HaShem will cause you to be struck down before your enemies; on one road will you go out against them, but on seven roads will you flee before them... Your carcass will be food for every bird of the sky and animal of the earth, and nothing will frighten them... HaShem will strike you with madness and with blindness, and with confounding of the heart... Your sons and daughters will be given to another people – and your eyes will see and pine in vain for them all day long, but your hand will be powerless... because you did not serve HaShem, your G-d, amid gladness and goodness of heart, when everything was abundant. So you will serve your enemies whom HaShem will send against you in hunger and in thirst, in nakedness and without anything... You will eat the fruit of your womb – the flesh of your sons and daughters – which HaShem had given you – You will be left few in number, instead of having been like the stars of heaven, for you will not have hearkened to the voice of HaShem, your G-d...” (Devarim 28:16-62...)

And yet, the Haftarah of Ki-Savo is one of the Seven Haftaros of Consolation. “Arise! Shine! For your light has arrived, and the Glory of HaShem has shined upon you... Lift your eyes about you and see, all of them assemble, they come to you; your sons from afar shall come, and your daughters shall be brought alongside... Who are these? Like a cloud they fly, like doves to their cote-windows. For unto Me shall the island-dwellers gather, and the ships of Tarshish, as in earlier times, to bring your children from afar, their gold and silver with them, for the sake of HaShem, your G-d, and for the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified you... No longer shall violence be heard in your Land, nor plunder and breakage within your borders, but you shall call G-d’s salvation your protective walls, and His praise your gateways. You shall no longer have need of the sun for light of day, nor for brightness the moon to illuminate for you; rather HaShem shall be unto you an Eternal Light, and your G-d shall be for your Glory...” (Yeshayahu 60:1-19...)

We have indeed experienced the horrors of history, in the Holocaust and other torments of our oppressors. And we are beginning to see the light promised by Yeshayahu in the Haftarah in the establishment of the State of Israel, and the return of our children and, in many cases, ourselves, to its borders.

I would like to mention a recent experience that is not unrelated to the idea of “Me’Afelah L’Ohr Gadol,” From Thick Darkness to Bright Light – to exaggerate slightly – or, better, to the idea of “Mitzvah Gedolah Li’heyos BeSimchah Tamid,” It is a Great Command to Always Be Happy. For one can, to a great extent, create his own mood, independent of external circumstances. A concert had been arranged here in Monsey, scheduled to begin at 8 in the evening. As is my wont, I arrived about fifteen minutes late, expecting to find a seat somewhere in the back of the hall. When I did arrive, there was no one there, except the owner of the house and the musicians, who were readying themselves for the concert, as if there were a full house! I know that if I had been in their place, I would have felt a combination of feelings of rejection, depression, resentment and anger, which would have rendered me incapable of playing up to my ability. And yet, here were three musicians and three members of the audience (another individual had arrived in the interim). But the band played with joy and fervor, and even rose to dance with the members of the “audience.” They did in fact play the song that is the motto of the Chassidim of Rabbi Nachman of Breslov, “It is a Great Command...”

To connect (if somewhat tenuously) the three parts of this essay: the Tochachah, the Haftarah and the concert, I would say that an essential ingredient in “Teshuvah,” Repentance, is to never allow oneself to be deluded into thinking that he or she is estranged from HaShem. It was important for those musicians to play with as much fervor for a tiny audience as for a sellout crowd. For, in the context of sinners, where one has inflicted the injury upon oneself, no matter how far one has fallen away from Him, no matter how lonely or rejected one may feel, it is important to remember that “Les Asar Panui Minei,” There is No Place Absent of Him – and the Hand of HaShem is always extended towards the sinner – “If he repents, You will accept him at once.” PF
