Haftorah for Parshios Nitzavim-VaYelech – 5770 –

“I Will Rejoice Exceedingly in HaShem...”

(Yeshayahu 61:10)

The Haftorah of Parashios Nitzavim-VaYelech is the seventh of the “Haftoros of Consolation” in the series of seven such Haftoros. Both the Ashkenazic and the Sefardic communities take this Haftorah from the Book of Yeshayahu beginning with 61:10 through 63:9. In the conversation between HaShem, His Prophets and the People of Israel which the Avudraham makes of these Haftoros, it is only this, the final one, in which the People of Israel has become convinced that her time of suffering is over, and the time of her Salvation has arrived. Perhaps it is because this is the seventh Haftorah, alluding to the Shabbos, the Day of Tranquility, that the Jewish People is finally able to find tranquility.

“I will rejoice exceedingly in HaShem, my Soul shall be joyful in my G-d;

For He has clothed me in the garments of Salvation, He has robed me in the robe of Righteousness;

As a bridegroom, ministering in majesty, and as a bride, beautiful in her raiment.” (Yeshayahu 61:10)

The Radak offers two interpretations: that it is the City of Yerushalayim speaking, upon her return to glory, or it is the People of Israel speaking, upon her return from the Exile.

“For as the earth brings forth her growth, and as a garden brings its plantings to maturity,

So the L-rd G-d will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.” (Yeshayahu 61:11)

Radak explains the analogy between the Salvation of the Jewish People to the plantings in a garden in 3 ways:

1. A seed in general is “destroyed” apparently, but then reconstitutes itself to become a plant even better than the original; so will Israel, after having been nearly destroyed in the Exile, return to vibrancy.
2. As a seed produces many more plants than the original plant, so will Israel become far greater numerically, and greatly exceed the original in their degree of honor and glory.
3. As a plant takes new life season after season, so will Israel experience new levels of growth time after time in their Era of Redemption.

The Radak doesn't mention the Talmud's “proof” of the “Revival of the Dead” “Kal VaChomer MiChitah,” by reasoning that if it happens naturally to a kernel of wheat, it will certainly happen for a human being.

“I have set watchmen upon your walls, O Yerushalayim,

They shall take no rest, Day or Night;

You who are the L-rd's Watchmen, Be never silent.” (Yeshayahu 62:6)

Rashi cites the Talmud, where this “Passuk” is interpreted as referring to Angels whose task it is to remind HaShem of His responsibility to rebuild the City of Yerushalayim, based on “Now You must rise and have compassion upon Zion, for the time to favor her is now; for her appointed time has come.” (Tehilim 102:14)

“Behold, the L-rd has proclaimed to the ends of the earth,

Say to the Daughter of Zion, ‘Behold, Your Salvation has come;

Behold, His reward is with Him, and His recompense is before Him.’” (Yeshayahu 62:11)

Radak explains that “His reward” refers to the reward due Israel for all their suffering in the Exile, in order to remain loyal to HaShem and His Torah.

“You will no longer be called ‘Forsaken,’ neither will you be called ‘Desolate;’

But you will be called ‘My Desire is for her,’ and your Land will be called ‘Fulfilled;’

For HaShem Desires you, and your Land will be ‘Fulfilled.’” (Yeshayahu 62:4)

Metzudas David elaborates on the words, “My Desire is for her” – “and I will never leave her again.”

“And they shall call them the ‘Holy People,’ the ‘Redeemed of HaShem;’

And you will be called ‘Sought Out,’ a ‘City Not-Forsaken.’” (Yeshayahu 62:12)

“You will be called...” – Radak and Metzudas Dovid explain that these names are the opposite of what the nations called you, and what you called yourself, during the time of the Exile. Then, they called you, “Yerushalayim, the Abandoned City;” now they will call you “Sought Out” and a “City Not-Forsaken.” The nations said about you, Israel, and you agreed, “G-d has left them;” it will now be revealed that HaShem in fact never left you, although He did punish you; but now your true identity is the “Holy People” and the “Redeemed of HaShem.”
