WILL RESUME IN THE FALL

Parashios Devarim- - "Chazon Yeshayahu" – "The Vision of Yeshayahu

This Shabbos, "Shabbos Chazon," Ashkenazim and Sefardim read as the Third "Haftarah of Punishment" from the first verse of the first Chapter of Yeshayahu, beginning, "Chazon Yeshayahu," "The Harsh Vision of Yeshayahu" – where Rashi indicates that "Chazon" is the most severe of the ten expressions of prophecy. Next Tuesday is "Tisha B'Av," the saddest day of the Hebrew Calendar, when there took place the disasters of the "Meraglim," the spies who betrayed HaShem and the Land of Israel, delaying the entry of the People into the Holy Land, with many negative implications for Jewish History, and the destruction of both of the Holy Temples, which together had stood for some 1,000 years. It is chanted to the same melody as "Megilas Eichah," the Scroll of Lamentations, written by the Prophet Yirmiyahu, who was an eye-witness to the first destruction. Yeshayahu had also been an "eye-witness," but only in the mind's eye of Prophecy. It still could have been averted, if only the People had repented.

"For what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to Me?...I am full of the burnt offerings...And I delight not in the blood..." (Yeshayahu 1:11)

The entire purpose of Sacrifices is to bring a person to Confession and Repentance. If you refuse to do "Teshuvah," I do not want your Sacrifices. (Metzudas David)

"Cease bringing false offerings, incense that is an abomination; New Moons and all your Holidays – I cannot endure the combination of sin and ritual." (Yeshayahu 1:13)

You suffer from the illusion that it is possible to worship HaShem and false gods simultaneously. As Eliyahu HaNavi said to the People, "...How long will you attempt to straddle two thresholds? If HaShem is the true G-d, then worship Him, and if the Ba'al is, then worship him." (I Melachim 18:21)

Israel is brought to trial, facing the following charges:

"Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves;

Everyone loves bribes, and runs after illegitimate payments;

They do not judge the orphan, nor does the case of the widow come before them!" (Yeshayahu 1:23)

The People of Israel, knowing that the charges are true, has nothing to say in response.

The Supreme Judge of the World pronounces the verdict: (Yeshayahu 1:24-27)

"Therefore, says the Master, the L-rd of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel;

'Ho! I will relieve Myself of My oppressors, and I will be avenged against My enemies.

I will pass My Hand over you, time after time, and purge your dross as with lye,

And take away all your false plating.' "

And the Haftarah concludes:

"And I will return your Judges as at the Beginning, and your Advisors as at the First;

Afterward, you will be called the City of Righteousness, the Faithful City.

Zion will be Redeemed in Justice, and those who Repent, will be Redeemed in Righteousness."

One might ask: "If this is supposed to be a 'Haftarah of Punishment,' why is it that it ends on a positive note?" The answer is that if the Symphony of the History of Israel would not end on a note of triumph, what would have been the purpose of the composition? Rather, the purpose of "Puranus," of Divine Punishment, is "Nechamah," Consolation. Just as the punishment administered by a parent to a child is meant for the betterment of the child, the punishment of our People should be seen as an attempt by "Avinu She-BaShamayim," Our Father in Heaven, to improve us and move us along the path to the Coming of the Mashiach.

L'Iluy Nishmas beni, Aharon Baruch Mordechai ben Pinchas Menachem

1:05 p.m. Orthodox Union/Y.U. Presentation

Making Tisha B'Av Meaningful to Us Today is a video presentation sponsored by the O.U. and Yeshiva

University's Center for the Jewish Future. It will feature Rabbi Yaakov Glasser, director of education, NCSY, the OU's international youth movement; Professor Smadar Rosensweig, clinical assistant professor of Bible at Stern College for Women of Yeshiva University; Rabbi Steven Weil, executive vice president of the Orthodox Union; and Rabbi Moshe Tzvi Weinberg, rebbe and mashgiach, Stone Beit Midrash Program, at YU. 75 minutes.

4:15 p.m. Life is strange

Isaac Hertz and Sammy Grundweg did not set out to make a documentary. They just wanted to learn something about their past and decided to start talking to survivors on camera about their youth. Aided with independent camera work, newsreels, and original home movies, Life is Strange is a tapestry of intimate conversations and rare footage that takes us into the heart of pre-war Yiddish culture and also documents the struggle that survivors experience to retain their memory and find some connection to an intangible past. 53 minutes.

6:30 p.m. Chofetz Chaim Presentation

Each day we have hundreds of opportunities to develop the greatness inside ourselves by choosing Hashem's plan for human relations. In this Chofetz Chaim Heritage Foundation Film titled Step by Step, Choosing Our Words, Rabbi Eli Mansour and Rabbi Eytan Feiner discuss recognizing the impact and taking control of the everyday decisions that define us. Program B. 80 minutes

1:03 p.m. Chatzos

1:40 p.m. Mincha Gedola

2:25 p.m. Nicky's Family

Nicky's Family tells the story of Nicholas Winton, who organized the rescue of 669 Czech and Slovak children just before the outbreak of WW II. Winton was silent about his exploits for over 50 years and the events would have been forgotten if his wife hadn't found an attic suitcase full of documents and transport plans. Today, the emotional story of the children's rescue is known throughout the world. Nicky's Family has earned rave reviews, winning over 30 awards, including 14 audience awards from U.S. film festivals. 102 min.

5:15 p.m. Ever Again

Narrated by Kevin Costner, Ever Again examines the resurgence of violent antisemitism and terrorism that threatens Europe and all of Western civilization. It exposes the dangerous Islamic extremism and culture of death being preached from the mosques of Europe's major cities. In Ever Again, you will hear from victims of the new antisemitism, government officials, and Jewish community leaders and witness explosive new material captured by undercover crews interviewing both Islamic fundamentalists and neo-Nazis. 75 minutes.
