Yom Kippur "Songs of Unity"

(Most of the following material was taken from the Art Scroll Machzor for Yom Kippur)

"The general consensus is that these songs were composed by R' Shmuel Bar Klonymos of Speyer, between 1120 and 1175. He was known as R' Shmuel HaChasid (the Devout One) because of his dedication to a Kabbalistic code of ethical, pious behavior and Divine Service. He was a forerunner of the "Chassidei Ashkenaz"...the group of outstanding people that stressed the strong and simple faith that sustained the Jews of Germany in all the horrible ordeals of the Crusades...Indeed, R' Shmuel's son, the great R' Yehudah HaChasid, was the leader of this group. That R' Shmuel is the composer of "Shir HaYichud" is stated by Maharal and concurred with by R' Yaakov Emden, R' Wolf Heidenheim and R' Seligman Baer in their Siddurim. The Song is divided according to the days of the week, but R' Yaakov Emden recommended that it be recited in its entirety only on the night of Yom Kippur, a time not only of great sanctity, but when people are well motivated to recite it with the proper devotion. The Song is devoted ...to lyrical... praises of G-d and expressions of Faith...based on Scriptural phrases and on R' Saadiah Gaon's "Sefer Emunos V'Deos," which is the Gaon's formulation of basic Jewish Faith."

The translation of a small fragment of each Song is presented; with more for the Day of Shabbos, on which Yom Kippur falls this year.

Yom Rishon: "I shall sing and make music to my G-d while I exist, the G-d Who was my Shepherd since I came into being...The living have not seen You, the heart does not know You...You alone recognize Your Praise and none but You knows Your Strength..."

Yom Sheni: "You are First and Last without beginning and without end...You have no perimeter and no edge, so no living being has seen You. You cannot be comprehended by any science, and there is no intellect that can understand how You created everything from nothing..."

Yom Shelishi: "...You are faithful to resuscitate the dead, as You made known through Your prophet...Behold! Nothing is hidden from You...And all are with truth, integrity and uprightness..."

Yom Revii: I shall exalt my father's G-d and my G-d...I shall unify the G-d of heaven and earth, two times every day...The Judge Who sits as the Ancient of Days...My Friend – all of Him is a delight..."

Yom Chamishi: "...You created the speech of the lips...Whatever You wish, You do with everything, for You are supreme over everything...There is no grandeur like Your grandeur, and no humility like Your humility..."

Yom Shishi: "...The land donned plants and vegetation, for each beast and every animal. In a fertile corner You planted a garden for the man whom You made. You made him a helper corresponding to him...You put G-dly wisdom in him, for You molded him in the image of G-d..."

Yom Shabbos: "Then on the Seventh Day You rested; therefore You blessed the Day of Shabbos...Blessed is HaShem, Who fashioned them all, the Living G-d and Eternal King... You spoke to them from heaven...You were exceedingly good to the early ones, may You be so good to the later ones...O HaShem, may You rejoice over us, as You rejoiced over our forefathers...O HaShem, rebuild Your City speedily, for Your Name is called upon it... May You make David's pride flourish in it, and may You, HaShem, dwell in it forever... Bless Your People with the Light of Your Countenance, for they desire to do Your Will..."

L'Illuy Nishmas beni, Aharon Baruch Mordechai ben Pinchas Menachem
